“ Patsy was one of my first friends at church when I moved to Lubbock in 1966. She & her sisters were my dear friends & mentors in teaching Bible classes & in modeling the Christian life as wives & mothers. We pray for your comfort. We rejoice that Patsy is now gone home & once again happy. We love all the Hufstedler family & pray God's comfort on all of you.

“ Richard, Mark, Mike and Ragan: Patsy and I shared so many happy times together at ACU. Chuck and I were in her and Wayne's wedding. Years after that our families went camping together. I will always remember all those fun times. My love and tender thoughts are with you all. Anne Smith
