Philippians 4:11-13

11 I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. 12 I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. 13 I can do all this through him who gives me strength.

“ My Deepest and Most Sincere Condolences to the family members and friends of Robert Edward Medley. Every time I saw Robert I hugged him and told him I loved him. Robert shared a spirit of truth/love that touched many deep inside our human spirit, it was undeniable.

My life was Forever Changed, for the Good, after Robert followed me out the door of the Hub, back in 08, and told me he hoped to see me again. (I didn't even know him at that time) I was lost, hopeless and unable to stay C/S. I told Robert that I wouldn't be coming back, NOT Ever. Robert replied "I hope you come back, I love you man" The tears immediately started flowing from my eyes, and I Did come back the next day, and many more days after that.

Robert changed my life that Day . . . I LOVE you Man > Until we meet again my Brother > Peace Be to YOU > Grace to your loved ones

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I knew Robert through HUB. When he spoke I sat still and listened. He spoke from the heart. Many times bringing me to tears. He was like me and I understood. I loved listening to him. I would go to the HUB and catch 2 meetings back to back. I learned more from him than anyone. I loved his humor. He reminded me of my Uncle who was murdered. His dry sense of humor made me laugh. His stories made me feel like I was not alone. I will always remember him, his laugh, his stories, his heart, and most of all how he would open up and the way he helped us.

I know God has a true warrior beside him. He worked so hard for himself but always made time for us. I hope he rests now but he will probably be fighting for his family and friends. I am blessed to have met him. He impacted my life as I know he did so many.

See you on the other side.
