“ Adell's children held a special place in her heart, and she dedicated herself to their happiness and well-being. Her infectious sense of humor brought joy to all those around her. Adell had a warm and beautiful smile that could brighten even the darkest of days.

Adell had a distinguished career at Litton Industries in Lubbock, where she served with dedication until its closure in the mid-80's. Her commitment and hard work made a lasting impression on her colleagues.

In her leisure time, Adell enjoyed watching sports, particularly football, baseball, basketball and hockey. She also had a passion for crossword puzzles, spending countless hours challenging herself. Adell was an active participant in softball and bowling leagues, finding companionship and enjoyment in these activities. Her love for dance and her infectious enthusiasm for life were evident in every step she took.

Adell found solace and strength in her faith, her spiritual journey was a source of comfort throughout her life.
