

Agnes Gertrude Williams

December 24, 1926 - June 27, 2017

Agnes Gertrude Williams, 90, of Lubbock, passed away Tuesday, June 27, 2017, after a series of illnesses.

Agnes was born December 24, 1926 in Duncan Flat, Texas to W.B. and Myrtle (Sedgwick) Carothers. She graduated from Patton Springs and worked as a telephone operator, portrait colorist and waitress. She lived many years on a family farm in East Afton before moving to Lubbock in 1992.

A visitation will be at Sanders Funeral Home, Friday night from 6:00 – 7:30 p.m. Service will be held at First Baptist Church in Dickens, Texas on Saturday July 1, 2017 at 1:00 p.m. Pastor Harold Abney will officiate. Interment will follow at Afton Cemetery.

Agnes was preceded in death by husband, J.D. Williams; sister Betty Kimzey; brothers, Bill, Leroy and Alvin Carothers.

Survivors include her sister, Linda Dement; son, Travis Williams; grandchildren, Renae and Christine; and 4 great-grandchildren; and many cousins, nieces and nephews that all loved her.

Condolences can be made at www.sandersfuneralhome.com.

Cemetery Details

Afton Cemetery

Afton, TX

Previous Events

Visitation

JUN 30. 6:00 PM - 7:30 PM (CT)

Sanders Memorial Chapel
1420 Main Street
Lubbock, TX 79401

Service

JUL 1. 1:00 PM (CT)

First Baptist Church of Dickens
Dickens, TX

Tribute Wall

“ Grandma had a curious sense of humor, had abundant love and forgiveness, and was a free spirited woman. She left me and my sister with awesome memories of hanging out at the farm, drinking coffee and playing dominos in the middle of the night, and snuggling in bed watching Johnny Carson or The Dating Game. Even late in life she'd get dolled up and go honky tonkin'! An inspiration to never forget to enjoy life as it comes at ya. Party hard in heaven, Grandma! Love you!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Renae Franklin - July 04, 2017 at 07:23 PM