

Alice Ann Baker

September 28, 1964 - April 17, 2026

Alice Robles Baker was born on September 28th, 1964 in Lubbock, TX to Joe and Juanita Robles. She graduated from Monterey High School in 1983. Following that, she graduated from Vogue College where she became a nail technician. Throughout her years of doing nails, she created lifelong friendships that she still has to this day. After 20 years as a nail technician, Alice began her career at Alliance Credit Union where she worked in member services. Despite all of her achievements in her career, her biggest accomplishment was marrying the love of her life, John, on July 23rd, 1988. The two of them have been in love since they started dating in 1985; A love so great it will last through eternity. Alice loved deeply-The Lord, her family, basketball, and dogs. Some of her fondest memories were spending time with her nieces and nephews. She had an infectious personality and never knew a stranger. Her bubbly nature and contagious laugh made it impossible for someone to not like her. It was a regular occurrence that she would call you "friend" after only knowing you for a couple of minutes. If you knew Alice, you were better for it.

Alice is survived by her husband, John Baker, her brothers Ernest Robles and his wife Dolores De Leon-Robles; Edwin Robles and his wife Tonda Robles, and Edward Robles.
