

Amber Florence Turner

May 28, 1925 - June 3, 2019

Amber Turner, 94, of Lubbock, Texas began her eternal life on June 3, 2019, on what would have been her 70th wedding anniversary.

She was born on May 28, 1925 in Goldthwaite, Texas to Tom Brown & Rachel Amber Graves. She graduated from Goldthwaite High School in 1942 & from North Texas State College in 1946. She married the love of her life, Otis Turner, on June 3, 1949, and they were married for 63 years. Her early career was teaching school briefly in Mercedes and Sundown, Texas. She also was the dental assistant for her brother in Kermit, Texas. Her most important career, however, was being a devoted wife, homemaker and loving mother. Amber was always involved in the Methodist church. She was the church pianist in Sundown, Texas and most recently a member of Lakeridge United Methodist Church in Lubbock. She served in many activities at Lakeridge and was a member of the Foundation class. Her focus in life was taking care of others unselfishly, through the giving of her time and random acts of kindness.

She is survived by her daughters Sharon Turner of Argyle, Texas and Carol Weeks Holmberg of Ransom Canyon, Texas; sister-in-law Ollie Ruth Brazeal of Lubbock; brother-in-law Ralph Turner of Grandbury, Texas; and extended family of 3 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.

“ Mrs. Turner was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever known. She often invited me to Thanksgiving or Christmas dinner after my husband passed away. Mrs. Turner wanted me to be with family, and that's how she made you feel, "like family."

Mrs. Turner was the ultimate mother! If Carol, Sharon and I were going out somewhere we always got the same speech, "You girls have fun, but be safe and be careful!" When we "girls" went out to eat we always brought her back some dessert. She didn't care what we brought her she was always so gracious and appreciative! She loved her sweets!

I will miss her warm hugs she was always so quick to give, her smile that would light up a room, and her wonderful happy personality!

Love you!
