

Roxanne Welch

October 25, 1969 - October 31, 2021

Amy Roxanne Welch, of Lubbock, wife of Dr. Robert A. Welch, died on October 31, 2021.

Roxanne was born October 25, 1969, in Lubbock, Texas, to Travis D. and Marilyn B. Brown. She received a public school education in Lubbock ISD, and was graduated from Lubbock High School; afterward, she attended Texas Tech University. She received training as a professional travel agent in Dallas; later she became a Certified EMT through South Plains College.

While she was a dutiful mother and a stay-at-home wife, who enjoyed baking (Oh, those Christmas Cookie Exchange Parties!), volunteering, and "being there" for her family, the biggest impact on her was being a part of the home school community. Teaching her children in a home-based academy, helping them become aware of and active in volunteerism, and working with extra-curricular activities, such as drama and soccer, she prepared successful adults for their chosen careers. More recently she had opportunities to enjoy the role of "Nonnie" to Robert's grandchildren, Alexa and Lincoln Welch.

While Roxanne will be dearly missed by family and those who loved her, she would want all to know that she was prepared to meet her Lord and Savior. She ran to meet Jesus Sunday morning, forever shedding the effects of a childhood bone disease and the more recently diagnosed cancer.

Survivors include her husband, Dr. Robert A. Welch, Lubbock; her daughter, Ramsey King (fiancée Jayden King); her sister Rhonda Reid (Harley), Levelland; and Robert's son, Rich Welch, Lubbock. Other survivors are her parents Travis and Marilyn Brown, Lubbock. Preceding her in death were her grandparents Victor and Pauline Billington and Lucille Brown, Lubbock.

A public visitation will be held Sunday, November 7, 2021 at Sanders Funeral Home at 3:00 PM. A Funeral Service will be Monday, November 8, 2021 in Sanders Memorial Chapel at 2:00 PM with Pastor David Henry, First Assembly of God Church, Hobbs, New Mexico officiating. Interment will follow at Peaceful Gardens Memorial Park.

“ I cannot overstate how happy I am that....this disgusting, vile, abusive, intolerable woman is dead and buried. My only regret is that I didn't get to see her suffer. Many may not know that she was terribly abusive to her step children. Both with visible physical scars from her reign of terror on the home she once inhabited, the emotional and metal scars left of the two step children. My friend (one of the step sons) didn't deserve the abuse she put them through, only by Gods grace has he turned into a loving husband and father. It is a shame that nobody seems to know or at least acknowledge what an evil witch this woman was. The world is truly a better place with her dead.

“ Travis, Marilyn, Rhonda, Ramsey
I am so sorry for your loss. There are no words to help with the pain you all are feeling. I pray that the peace of the Lord surrounds you and provides much needed comfort for the waves of sadness you are experiencing.
When I think of Roxanne... I think laughter, hugs, sleepovers, hair, makeup and clothes! She was my HS BBA. I am sad that we drifted apart as miles and years passed. It was wonderful to see her a few years back and catch up and see how happy she was! She was such a joy to me. Always telling me what I needed to hear! So blessed to have known her. Goodbye my sweet BBA! See you later.

“ Marilyn, Travis, Rhonda, and Ramsey,
Our hearts are broken for you. Please know we are thinking of all of you constantly and we are covering you in prayer. It is such a comfort to know Roxanne is in Jesus care now and we will see her again someday.

“ My beautiful, sassy, and spirited sister: I can't convince my heart to believe this is real, but my head knows it is. Thank you for always being my first teacher for learning new things: how to put on mascara (you know how that went!), riding my bike, and so many more things. I will miss you every second of every breath I take until I see you again. As the song says, "I can only imagine" what your eyes are seeing. I can only imagine the pure joy that must have been on your face as you ran to our Savior! While I am so thankful you are healed, the little sister part of me wants you here. I love you so much and I've already missed talking to you multiple times a day. Until we meet again...
