

Andrew Charles Hays

July 14, 1946

Andrew Charles “Andy” Hays of Lubbock passed away on Thursday, December 20, surrounded by his family at University Medical Center. He was born July 14, 1946, to Polly Ramsey Hays and Rupert Node “Jack” Hays. He graduated from Lubbock High School, class of 1965, and attended Odessa Junior College, where he studied theater. He worked for Great Plains Distributors, marketing for Coors.

Andy was an avid fan of Texas Tech University and Texas Tech football. He was a member of the AMBUCS club and volunteered with the ABC Rodeo for many years. Andy was also an artist; many of his original works can still be viewed in the Lubbock area.

Andy was preceded in death by his parents, “Jack” and Polly Hays, and his brother, Roscoe Sparks “Sparky” Hays of Lubbock Texas. He is survived by his wife, Sheridan Hunter Hays; son, Ray Haggard and wife Kori of Lubbock; grandsons, Hayden and Parker; daughter, Jill Phemister and husband Marcus of Lubbock; grandchildren, Katie, Joel, and Hannah Alexander, Jaelyn Sams-Phemister, and Jaelyn and Drew Phemister; daughter, Amy Dickey and husband Trey of Harlingen; granddaughters, Addison and Taegan; son, Tony Zas and wife Lila of Lubbock; grandsons, Caden and Colbyn.

The viewing will be held Friday, December 21, 2018, from 5:00 PM- 7:00 PM at Sanders Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held Saturday, December 22, 2018, at 2:00 PM at Indiana Avenue Baptist Church. In lieu of flower, Andy's family request that donations be made to Chorus of Angels at Joe Arrington Cancer Center. The family also wishes to thank the doctors, nurses, and staff at the Joe Arrington Center, Covenant and University Medical Center for their care of Andy and family during their stay.
