“ We send our heartfelt condolences to the family of Angelita. We remember her as a happy, sweet, friendly little girl who played often with our daughter Beth. One time in particular, Beth was at Angelita's house and they decided to play with some dried red peppers that her mom had hanging outside the kitchen. After playing for some time, they inadvertently rubbed their eyes, and the hot peppers began to sting! Beth came running home crying (or perhaps her eyes were just watering!). I'm sure Mrs. Deleon had to comfort Angelita also! Years later, they laughed about their silly adventure with red peppers.
May God comfort you with His might grace in this time of loss.
Sincerely, Fred and Mary Satterwhite
