“ Aunt Anna always had the warmest smile that made you feel like you were being hugged and loved!

From the first time I met Aunt Anna, she was always one of the sweetest and nicest people I could ever hope to meet.

Back when I was a little girl of around 9 years old, every Saturday I would take my nickle or dime (whichever my Mother could afford) and I would shop at TG&Y at Town & Country Shopping Center while my mother grocery shopped at Furr's. I would look at all sorts of items throughout the store trying to decide which special thing I would purchase this time, and all the while, the nice sales lady named Anna would keep a watchful eye on me and my brother making sure we were safe. Anytime we had a question about something she would just smile and help us as though it was her greatest pleasure to be there for us.

That relationship continued for many years, then Anna moved to the Briercroft TG&Y. My parents moved near there and again I got to shop with Anna.

Then I married into the family and she became my "Aunt Anna"! She immediately accepted me and my little daughter, Shaena, and loved us from then on like we were her very own. Any time she saw me or my kids she would smile the brightest smile and give us big hugs. She made us feel so special because of her great love! We will miss her!

“ My other vivid memories, are of her working at TG & Y. I loved going in there, when I was young, and the first thing I would do...look for Aunt Anna. She was almost always at the front, and she would always have a joyful "hello, Shaena!!" and a big hug for me. It was always fun, asking about and looking at what she was doing or working on. I even still remember the "easy listening elevator music" that was always playing in there. Good, sweet memories!!

“ We are so very sad at Aunt Anna's passing, but we know that she and Uncle Johnny are together again! I was so fascinated with her cake decorating. About 20 years ago, I was asked to make a wedding cake for some friends. I called Aunt Anna and asked if she had any advice for me, and she told me to just come over. I spent that afternoon, talking "cakes" with her. When I left, I had a solid plan in place, and had a successful cake because of it. She told me to always take pictures of the cakes I made, and always make sure they were supported well! She had already gotten rid of a lot of her cake-making supplies, and felt bad that she didn't have certain things for me to borrow at the time, but the time and wisdom she shared with me, meant so much more to me. She was a very special Aunt to me, and I will miss her! ❤️
