“ *I'm not sure if it was this Gentleman that passed away on Friday that was working on a home behind our home across the alley. But this man called out to Our Lord as he fell. Twice we heard him say JESUS HELP ME!!!
My condolences to his family.
I'm blessed that God put me to be there praying for him as he went home to God!*

“ I have so many memories growing up with my grandpa, he later earned the name "Dog" when I was in high school and he'd take me to school. I'd get in the car every morning and say "What up, Dog?" He loved it so it just stuck. One of the funniest times we had together though was a few years ago when Lubbock had that huge snow storm and everything was closed. My phone was off and I needed WiFi to email a slideshow to one of my classmates, so we went to McDonald's. They were closed but we sat in the parking lot getting the WiFi. People driving by saw us and thought they were open, so many cars pulled in! They parked, got out and tried to go in, went through the drive through thinking they were open!! Grandpa and I just sat there in his truck laughing at them. Never had a dull moment with my Dog.

“ Remembering when Junior and Delma first met. My sister and I were at Rogers Park with Delma we must have been 15 or 16 years old. Junior was walking across the park and they locked eyes and smiled at each other. Not sure how telephone numbers were exchanged but this was the beginning of their relationship. Very sweet.

“ My favorite memory of Tio Jr. Was when he was at the club with his brothers. Jr. Got up to dance before they new it his wife walks in looking for him so the brothers are telling him to get down. Jr. Thought they meant to really get down dancing. Before he knew it his wife sees him and pulls him out the bar....he tells his brothers I thought you were telling me to really get down not that my wife was here...lol
