“ I applied to come to Lubbock because I knew I had a friend who was like family. When I got accepted into nursing school, Barbara was the first person I told. I lived in Lubbock till 2006. I was excited to come back because I knew I had a friend I could count on no matter what. She gladly accepted me into her house till I found my feet. The so called nursing school, could not give me a minute to attend my friends memorial. The past days and nights have been long and daunting for me. I will make you proud my friend. Rest in peace.

“ there are no words to describe barbara except caring and kind... she was always worried about how someone else was doing even when she was barely getting around her self.. Heaven received an angel and she will truly be missed..

“ Barbara had a giving heart Im so thankful i got spend time with her and KC last March. My baby brother passed away he and my older brother lived in the same apartments as her. She didnt hesitate to offer to drive my older brother to Alabama and also stopped in Ft Worth to pick my niece up. I will always be grateful to her for this unselfish act. Plus I got to reconnect with her bc she She stayed at my house. She was a special person with a big heart heaven gained from our loss.
