

Bennie Wayne English

February 2, 1925 - July 31, 2021

Bennie Wayne English, 96, passed away on July 31, 2021 in Albuquerque, New Mexico. She had been a long time resident of Lubbock prior to moving to Albuquerque in 2006 to be nearer her daughter and granddaughters.

Bennie was born February 2, 1925 to Perry and Florence Marshall in Matador, Texas. She graduated from Matador High School in 1942. She married Henry Hayes English in 1954, and together they had one daughter.

During her working years she served as office manager and bookkeeper for various Lubbock businesses including Pop's Farm and Ranch Store, Latham's department store, Frank McGlaughn Office Supply, and Vera's ladies wear.

She lived in Amarillo for a time working for PumpCo until her retirement after which she returned to Lubbock until 2006.

Bennie was preceded in death by her parents, husband, siblings, and son-in-law.

She is survived by her daughter Beth Wilson, granddaughters Ashle Armstrong and Jenny Wilson, their husbands Jeremy Armstrong and Christopher Montoya, and seven great grandchildren William, Theodore, Etta, Bear, Madelyn, Jett, and Gracyn.

Bennie lived her life committed to what many would consider old fashioned values. Her life was defined by cleanliness, hard work, thriftiness, honesty, integrity, family, and faith in God. She left a lasting impression on all who knew her, and she will be remembered with love and missed by many.

As Bennie was always an active member of First Cumberland Presbyterian Church when living in Lubbock, the family suggests donations to the Sam and Lois Estes Memorial Scholarship fund in care of the church in lieu of flowers.

Her life will be remembered in a service on Friday, August 27, 2021 at 2:00 PM in the Sanders Memorial Chapel in Lubbock. Please celebrate Bennie's life by visiting www.sandersfuneralhome.com A website of services will be available as well as our online guestbook.
