

Bertell A. W. Jackson

April 7, 1921 - April 14, 2016

Bertell was born in Lubbock, Texas on April 7, 1921. He was the youngest of 10 children. He married Berniece Jackson December 31, 1939 in Clovis, New Mexico. They had three children, Judy Blackwell of Lubbock, George Jackson of Lubbock and Margaret Hunt of Colorado Springs, CO. He's survived by 8 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. Bertell owned a Lincoln/Mercury dealership in Levelland, Tx for 11 years, and bought and sold small aircraft there. He then became a general building contractor for 35 years in Lubbock. Bertell was a member of Lubbock Lions Club for 30 years, past president of the West Texas Home Builders Association and was a Lifetime Director of the National Association of Home Builders. He enjoyed travel, reading, telling jokes and spoiling his family.
