“ My first memory of sweet Bettie was at her grandson Chris house. She and Dexter came over and they made me feel like family immediately. Love was multiplied by them to all who knew them. With the light of God shining through them always.

“ That woman was such a bundle of joy and energy. Always the sweetest woman and would never hesitate to pray for you or tell you about Jesus. I was very close to her son, Roy and we were like brothers for the longest. Bettie was like another mother to me and Bobby, almost like having someone else who would scold, correct or love on us when we needed. I'll miss her sweet spirit but know she is rejoicing in Heaven with Dexter and her family.
