“ Betty was always a joy to be around. She stayed in contact with us by her phone calls and cards. We will miss Betty and know that she is with those she loved. Our deepest sympathy to Jimmie, Sandie and Polly and all the nieces and nephews she leaves behind.
Love,

“ My memories of Betty go back to the early 40's when her large family of 4 brothers and 7 sisters would gather for special occasions. She was my mother's younger sister and was truly the life of any gathering. She was indeed a special, loving, caring individual and we will miss her so very much. Good bye Betty Jo. Enjoy your eternal life with Cecil, your parents and your brothers and sisters, but most of all with Jesus.
Jimmy, Sandie, and Polly - I share your sadness.
Love, Shirley
