

Betty Gaynelle Grant

November 23, 1943 - December 25, 2017

Betty Gaynelle Ammons Grant passed away on December 25, 2017, following a short illness. She was born on November 23, 1943 to Peyton and Odessa Ammons in Matador, Texas. Betty grew up in West Texas, graduating from Lubbock High School in 1962. She married Ray Grant, Sr., who was stationed at Reese AFB, in August 1962 and they had two sons, Ray and Todd. She attended Texas Tech University and Louisiana State University before starting an office supply business with her husband in Dayton, Ohio. It was there at Grant Office Supply that she discovered her talent in sales. She later moved to Lubbock to help care for her mother and aunt while she worked at Dillard's Department Stores as a salesperson. Betty is survived by sons, Ray Grant, Jr. and wife Lori of San Antonio, and Todd Grant of Fort Worth; as well as her many grandchildren - Peyton and wife Kristen, Collin, Lexie, Jessica, Austin, Andrew, and Abigail. She is preceded in Heaven by her parents, Peyton and Odessa Ammons as well as her brothers, Peyton Jr., and Ernest Clark Ammons. Viewing will be at Sanders Funeral Home on December 29 from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM with memorial services being conducted on December 30 at 1:00 PM at Sanders Funeral Home.
