

Betty Webb

December 11, 2010

January 24, 1924 – December 11, 2010

Elizabeth Keyes Russell “Betty” Webb born January 24, 1924 was called home on Saturday, December 11, 2010. She was married to RI Webb for 64 years. Betty was born and lived her childhood in Sherman, her married life in Denver City, then retired to Lubbock at Windsong. She graduated from North Texas College in 1944 then completed a fellowship in child development at the University of Chicago. Betty started a nursery school in Canyon, owned a nursery school in Denver City for 5 years, and then retired from Denver City ISD after 25 years of teaching. She is a member of the Methodist Church and the Tejas Women’s Study Club. Mom “Neno” will be lovingly remembered as a wife who truly loved her husband, a wonderful friend, great hostess, party planner and cook, as well as a sharp card player.

She is survived by two daughters, Theresa Marshall of Dallas and Patti Everett of Plano; sons-in-law, Greg and Mike; seven grandchildren; and twelve great-grandchildren.

We will honor a wonderful woman at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, December 13, 2010 in the Neil Chapel at Windsong in Lubbock. Betty will be buried with her husband at the DFW National Cemetery.
