

Bill Mitchell Jr.

April 15, 1947 - December 29, 2013

William Ross Mitchell Jr. born April 15, 1947 passed away December 29, 2013 after an extended illness. Bill grew up in the small town of Monahans. He was a talented baseball pitcher and later played for the University of Albuquerque. He was proud to have served his country during the Vietnam War in the U.S. Army. Bill championed the underdog. He had a career in Law enforcement where he was able utilize his love for people, rather than use force or his size, to bring resolution to people in desperate situations. Bill's love for animals might have exceeded his love for people! Bill is survived by his wife Diana of 30 years, his daughter Kimberly, and his son Bradley, sister Marjorie Chittum and husband Ralph Chittum of Natural Bridge, VA., brother Roy Mitchell and wife Dianne of Marana, AZ, Brother Michael Mitchell of Albuquerque, NM., and numerous nieces and nephews. Bill was preceded in death by parents William Sr. and Lavada Mitchell, brother Dennis Mitchell, and daughter Michelle. There will be a small private family service, out-of-state, at a later date. Feel free to make a donation to a Veteran's organization or directly to a veteran in need in honor of Bill.
