“ When Bill moved to Missouri in '72, Newt hired me as a replacement. Then, when they returned to Lubbock he came back to LBP and me, him, and Laster worked together. We all became good friends and he and I coached Little League together. I left in 1975 to go in to business for myself and I still often think oh him, Laster, Norma, znewt, ,Mr. Miller, and the others. One of my happiest times after Viet Nam! Rest in Peace my friend.
