“ We are so sorry the weather prevented us from coming to the service to pay our respects to you all. The descriptions of his life in the obituary and the pictures were so touching. Such a cute boy and handsome man. We are so in debt to Big Bob and Betty for raising such a good man who became our much loved and admired son-in-law. Diane and Frank Toussaint

“ To our Dear Uncle Bobby. My wonderful memories started as far back as I can remember as a child. There were: the times you spent with us telling us stories about the Fire Department and advice about growing up; the time you were in the backyard with Larry and I and told us not move as you took a pitch fork to rescue us from a tarantula; the beautiful paintings you made for us; the hand tooled leather belts and coins purses; the many laughs you gave us; the times we would wake up from deep sleep to Uncle Bobby shaking our foot and asking if we needed to go to the bathroom just to make us laugh. There is no way to tell you what an important person you have been in the life of our family. I wonder how we were so blessed to have you in our life. I thank God that I got to be with you for this short journey on earth and will see you again for “chili beans and Pepsi cola”. We love you our precious Uncle Bobby. There will never be another like you. God’s gift to us was you.
