

Bonnie F Brannan

September 9, 1937 - January 11, 2023

Bonnie Hagar Brannan, 85, of Lubbock, Texas passed away January 11, 2023.

Bonnie was born September 9, 1937, in Jayton, TX to Clyde Hagar and Willie Hagar. Bonnie had a career in insurance and banking, however, the most important profession for her was pastoring and ministering to others. Bonnie was someone that loved to travel and plant churches to help spread the Word. Bonnie loved baking, the occasional trip to Olive Garden, reading her Bible, and spending time with family. She had an infectious laugh that the family can still hear. Bonnie married the love of her life J. N. Brannan on July 15, 1976, in Lubbock, TX, where they continued to work together in their ministry leading people to the Lord.

Loved ones include stepson Ray Brannan of Lubbock, Tx; stepdaughter Sharon Brannan Potter of Lubbock, TX; 5 grandchildren; 8 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

Preceded in death by parents Clyde and Midge Hagar; sisters Joyce Cherry, Naomi Smith, Vada Melton, Betty Reynolds, Darlene Randolph, and Jean Whalen, and brothers O.V. and Pete Hagar.

“ Nana was a great woman! She loved God with all of her heart!! I have so many good memories. She didn't always have it easy. She had a lot of things happen that were difficult for her, but she never lost her faith! What a testimony! We talked a lot over Olive Garden salad, breadsticks and Spaghetti. I am sad for sure, but she has been striving to go to heaven all of her life. Especially since she lost my Grandfather. Nana banana... I know you are with God, Jesus, Pappy and all of your loved ones that went before you! I hope I can be half the Christian that you were! Love you forever ❤️❤️❤️

“ I just want to say, I love my Aunt Bonnie and will miss her! She helped me get back into church. I always saved her a seat in the front row incase she could make it and for that I am truly great full .
