Burtis Stokes, 77, of Lubbock, Texas passed away December 16, 2021. Burtis Lynn Stokes was born December 28, 1943 in Gaines County, TX to I. E. and Mary Faye Stokes. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1961-1965. Burtis was a delivery driver for the Avalanche Journal. He enjoyed spending time bowling, playing Bingo and gin.

Loved ones include sister, Gail Lindsey; son, Jodey Dale Stokes; grandchildren Jeffrey, Steven and Melina, nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by his parents and brother, W. J. "Sonny" Stokes. Memorials are suggested to a charity of your choice.

A celebration of his life will be at his graveside services at 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, December 28, 2021 at the City of Lubbock Cemetery.

"When, therefore, we were approached by those in whom the problem had been solved, there was nothing left for us but to pick up the simple kit of spiritual tools laid at our feet. We have found much of heaven and we have been rocketed into a fourth dimension of existence of which we had not even dreamed."

“ I met Burtis at South Plains bowling lanes in Lubbock. We discovered we were fellow Marines and soon became doubles team mates. Burtis was an outstanding bowler and we were at the top of the senior leagues for several years. Burtis was kind, humorous and easy to get along with. i certainly miss him as many of his friends do. Semper Fi Burtis and Rest in Peace. I am sorry to have put this in so late but had some health issues of my own which precluded it. Respectfully, Sam Tillett, Col USMC (Ret0

“ Burtis always had a smile on his face and a kind word to say. I worked with Burtis for about seven years. He will be missed by his friends at work. I always laugh when I remember him telling me about his parking spot on the hill top outside of Post.
