In her own words, "In living life we all find ourselves in many different places. People ask, 'what are you looking for?' I believe it is called happiness. I feel like I finally realized that each of us is responsible for our own happiness, to a great extent. Happiness is a state of well being. So I say that it is a state of mind. The glass is half full! If someone gives you lemons, make lemonade. We all have a little good inside us, and we all have a little bad in there somewhere. Look for the good, leave the bad. Wake up in the morning and sing a happy song.”

“ I didn't know Carla was ill. I haven't seen her in a while. I was looking back on some of the things she and I did many years ago. The kids will remember this. How we went to the patch and picked vegetable and canned them. Kids do you remember all the potatoes that we canned and long with peas. Oh how much fun we had. Carla was such a good person. She had a lot to give in the way of spiritual. Mike she will b e your guardian angel looking down on you. She will be missed by many people. Love to all of the Family. Della and sons. They were so shocked when I called them.

“ Carla was a woman of great Faith and love for our Lord. She did not fear death because she knew what was promised But the pain was more than she could handle. We smile at the many memories she left behind , in her art, her love for teaching Gods word, and the friendships she held close. . Ransom Canyon is deeply touched with her sudden death, but at peace knowing She is now in " Beulah Land"... Yes Carla.....I will always sing that song with you in my heart. Thank you for that special request. Maralyn and Allen Butler
