

Carmen Marie Rodriguez

August 13, 1975 - February 16, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Carmen Marie Rodriguez, born on August 13, 1975, in Lubbock, Texas to Arthur and Anna Sue Rodriguez and passed away on February 16, 2025. She was a lifelong member of Saint Joseph's Catholic Church and a proud graduate of Monterey High School, where she completed her education in 1995. Carmen was known for her vibrant spirit and her deep love for family, particularly her beloved mother, Anna Rodriguez, and her sister, Jessica Rodriguez. Carmen was preceded in death by her father, Arthur Rodriguez. Carmen is survived by her nieces Andrea Arredondo and Adrianna Sea and great nieces Arianna, Camilia and baby Eden also two great nephews Elliot and Diego.

Carmen will be greatly missed by her cat, Sadie and dog, Daisy.

Carmen brought joy to those around her through her many hobbies and interests. She cherished playing with her Barbies, coloring, and singing along to her favorite artists like Reba McEntire and Little Joe. Carmen also enjoyed playing her recorder and spent countless hours playing cards. One of her fondest memories was riding on her father's motorcycle, an experience she treasured deeply. She loved to wear her Patrick Mahome's jersey on game days.

The family would like to express their gratitude to the staff at Hospice of Lubbock and all the doctors who provided care and support to Carmen throughout the years.
