

Carolyn Barrier

June 8, 1929 - July 28, 2023

Carolyn Barrier, 94, of Lubbock, Texas, passed away July 28, 2023. Carolyn was born June 8, 1929, in Lamesa, Texas, to Caryl and Neva Baldwin. She graduated from Lamesa High School and attended Texas Tech University. Carolyn was a member of Koshari sorority and was voted freshman class favorite at Tech.

Carolyn graduated with an associate degree in liberal arts. She met King Barrier at Tech and after a brief courtship, they were married on August 31, 1948. King and Carolyn lived in Austin and Snyder before making a permanent home in Lubbock where they raised their daughters.

While she was still in high school, she began her work experience in the family business, Baldwin's Department Store, in Lamesa. After attending Texas Tech and the birth of her children, she furthered her education at Draughon's Business College. In her professional career, Carolyn worked as a secretary at the Lubbock Cotton Exchange. She also worked as a secretary for the Crosbyton Solar Energy Project at Texas Tech University. Her final position was as Administrative Assistant to the Associate Dean of the Texas Tech Medical School.

Carolyn and King loved to entertain. They were lifelong members of a bridge club, and Carolyn was the last surviving member of the group.
They loved to travel and spend time at their ranch in Lampasas County Texas.
She served as a volunteer at Covenant Hospital and was a member of the Lubbock
Women's Club. She is remembered as an amazing cook; everyone loved to share
the meals she made.

Carolyn was a member of Westmont Christian Church.

Loved ones include daughters, Beverly Barrier and Barbara Haile and husband,
Jack; grandchildren, Evan Haile-Turner and Olivia Om; great-grandchild,
Rowan
Haile-Turner; sister, Katharine Earnest.
Preceded in death by her husband, King Barrier, her parents and siblings,
Jimmie
Jean Ryan, Lotta Bess Tucker.

Memorials are suggested to Imagination Station P.O. Box 1126 Stratford, Texas
79084 or Meals on Wheels of Lubbock.
