

Catherine Ann Tate

July 31, 1930 - April 11, 2015

Catherine Ann Tate, beloved wife of Dr. E Gene Tate, died peacefully April 11, 2015 at home, in Lubbock, Texas. A celebration of Catherine's life will be held at 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, April 14, 2015 at St. Luke's United Methodist Church, 45th and Memphis, with Dr. Andy Hurst officiating. The family will receive friends from 10-11 a.m. at the church.

Cathy was born to William and Claire Cheyne in Moline, Illinois on July 31, 1930. She graduated from Moline High School and the University of Iowa. She met Gene while serving in the Red Cross as a social worker at Ft Leonard Wood , MO. They married February 14, 1958 in Jefferson City, MO and moved to Lubbock in 1968.

Cathy was a longtime member of PEO and St Luke's United Methodist church. She loved her family, old movies, music, traveling, bridge and sharing good food with family and friends. She entertained and delighted many with her gift of beautifully playing the piano by ear. She was predeceased by her parents and beloved daughter Diane. She is survived by Gene and their children Bill and his wife, Kisha Tate and Julie Mize; her grandchildren, Christa and her husband, Scott Patterson, Ragan and his wife, Rachel Crossland, Alison, Will, Mimi and Matt Tate and Jonathon Mize; her great-grand children, Caitlyn and Cash Patterson and Ava and Emery Crossland. Her sister, Mary Mahar, her nephew Charlie Mahar and nieces, Kathleen, Tevis and Francie.

In 1956 Cathy received a note from a 13 yr old fellow passenger on a cross-Atlantic cruise declaring her the nicest person in the world. Throughout her life the many people she would meet and warmly connect with would agree!

In lieu of flowers, a donation can be made in her memory to St Luke's United Methodist Church.
