Cecil passed peacefully into eternity on January 23, 2017 at Covenant Medical Center in Lubbock. He was born in St. Joe, Arkansas on December 15, 1932, though his grandfather, the delivering doctor inadvertently recorded the birthdate as December 14th. His parents were William Joseph and Mary Rebecca Bray Rogers.

Cecil was raised in Arkansas where he attended grade school. He later moved to Graham, Texas where he attended high school and worked. He married Lily Muriel Donathan on May 10, 1951 in Graham, Texas. They eventually moved to Lubbock and were married for 65 years. He worked various jobs when he was younger, but spent the last 35 years of his career in Lubbock in the floor covering business. During retirement, Cecil enjoyed his family and grandchildren, hunting fishing, and working part-time at a local donut shop before his declining physical condition precluded these activities. He is survived by his loving wife, Lily Rogers of Lubbock, Texas; son, Rusty and Gala Rogers of Lubbock, Texas; son, Jerry and Mary Rogers, of Mt. Vernon, Washington; daughter, Mary and Danny McAnear of Fort Worth, Texas; daughter, Cindy and Cully Deaton of Kermit, Texas; son, Dr. Gregory and Cody Rogers of Lubbock, Texas; 25 grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren; many nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his parents, 12 siblings, and 1 great-granddaughter. In lieu of flowers, the family encourages donations to The Children's Advocacy Center Of The South Plains - www.safeplace4kids.org.
