“ Im not sure if this is a memory or a miracle. When I was pregnant with Chad I never knew that he was going to be sick. But after I had him. I remember the doctor telling me while I was still pregnant that either I myself not make it or Him Chad or both. So afterwards when I had him. He was sick when he was born but I really do think that the Lord gave him to us for 26 years. Since he wasnt going to make it.

A miracle at hand.

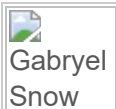

I love you Chaddie to the moon and back.

“ I remember nothing but good things from Chad while we worked together at China Star. He was always ready to help everyone and was so silly. We would talk about Super Natural and music we both enjoy. I remember my first morning working at China Star he was there to help me and on the days to follow too. I remember one day specifically when he knew i was working all day and he, with his kind heart, knowing I didn't eat in the restaurant, brought me taco bell :) I also remember him waiting with me at night to get picked up from work after his shift was already over. I was very lucky to have met such a nice and wonderful young man. RIP Chaddy Waddy
