Charlene passed away February 10, 2021.

Charlene was born January 15, 1956 in Pecos, TX to Ward Franklin and Marthellen Franklin. Sharing time with family was one of the most important things to Charlene. She was an excellent cook and enjoyed sharing her love of cooking with others. She was the office manager for the family business. She enjoyed making jokes at her family's expense. She enjoyed traveling and seeing and trying new things. The family will enjoy the crocheted blankets and sweaters that were provided for them by her loving hands.

Loved ones include husband Johnny McDonald; daughter Andra Slater and husband Brian; son David McDonald and wife Robin; and daughter Jinnifer Duncan and husband Trey; 8 cherished granddaughters; and 4 sisters.

Preceded in death by Herbert Franklin (Father), Martha Franklin (Mother).

In lieu of flowers memorials are asked to be directed to Southside Church of Christ 8501 Quaker Ave. Lubbock, TX 79424.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Charlene was one of the first people that made me feel welcome at Roosevelt. I'll never forget our time car pooling to our first semester at Tech. Oh Lord she made me laugh but also gave me the confidence to keep going. God gained a beautiful angel in her.
