

Charles Reubin French, Jr.

January 27, 1955 - December 21, 2022

Charles (Chuck) French Jr., 67, of Hartford, Vermont and most recently Lubbock, Texas passed away December 21, 2022.

Chuck was born January 27, 1955 in Windsor, Vermont to Charles and Pauline French. He was a sports lover and enjoyed baseball, football, and soccer. Chuck was an avid coffee drinker and had a love for food. He enjoyed watching NASCAR, and greatly enjoyed nature while deer hunting. He appreciated the musical works of Buddy Holly, Roy Orbison, and Meatloaf.

Chuck met his wife Heidi at a coffee shop where she worked, and after many attempts she finally agreed to go on a date. They just recently celebrated 40 years of marriage.

Loved ones include wife, Heidi French; son, Clinton (Melanie Foresta) French ; daughter, Kimberlee (Clayton) Walden; grandchildren, Adelina and Arianna French, Rylan and Lainey Charles Walden, brothers Michael and Jeffrey French and two nieces.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Memorials are suggested to your local SPCA or St. Jude Children's Hospital.

A celebration of his life will be 10:00 AM (central time) Thursday, December 29, 2022 at Rock City Church, Lubbock, TX with Jeff McCreight officiating. To watch the livestream tune into Rock City Lubbock on YouTube, click on their YouTube page and select live prior to service starting.

“ I was a classmate of Chucks at WUHS and also lived in Hartland. Chuck gave me and others a ride to school every day in “the station wagon”. I remember a few hairy trips in the winter, but Chuck delivered us all safely. He was a kind gentle guy. My sympathy to his family. RIP Chuck

“ Hey Chuck,
You are loved and missed by many. I wish we all could have had more time together but God had other plans. I miss our conversations of the past and how you would always make me laugh. Please know that the girls and i love you very much and Adelina keeps asking about you. May your soul rest in eternal peace.
Ci rivediamo.

Love,

Melanie ❤️
