“ We will forever remember our Granddaddy as the strongest man we know, the fixer of all things, the keeper of the best bags of popcorn, the maker of the best SOS and peanut butter crackers, naps on the couch watching PGA, and early morning wake-up songs to start our day. Anytime I hear “Amers” or grab hold of my kids’ toes to pop them, I will smile and remember him. I will always contribute our family’s love and acceptance for others, sense of humor, and work ethic for what he and Granmama instilled in all of us because it all started with them. Although we miss him and our hearts ache, we take comfort in knowing he will be there waiting for us with a big hug on the other side. It’s not goodbye, it’s see you later. We love you!
