“ Charles' son John and I have been best friends since 1973. I will always remember Dr. Wendt's calm and kind demeanor which is clearly reflected in my friend John. I have always admired him and enjoyed our visits over the years. He will be missed.

“ Charles Wendt, Sam Little and Paul Revier were three of a kind when it came to agriculture. Projects were unlimited, carried out to perfection with the love of the land, country and family. We all are better for having been involved with these men. What a reunion that was when the Gates of Heaven were opened.
