Roger Garrison 12/6/07 For me it began a little more than 50 years ago, All that you have done for me, I doubt I'll ever know. You were there through the good times and the bad I don't know what to do except whisper, "Thank You, Dad???. Every year on camping trips we would go, To gather wood and build a fire to us you did show. By car, trailer and then by motor home, The beautiful Wild West we

MY FIRST CHRISTMAS IN HEAVEN I see the countless Christmas trees around the world below With tiny lights, like heaven's stars, reflecting on the snow. The sight is so spectacular, please wipe away that tear, For I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year. I hear the many

Since I was going to Altus I decided to visit some of the places where your parents lived. I visited the swimming hole in Tishomingo, the high

Roger Dale wrote on 6/19/2007: Fathers's Day has come and gone and boy was it hard. No one to call and say "Happy Father's Day!" to. David and I spent about half an hour reminicing about Dad -the good times we had, the places he took us and the things he did for us. It was sweet to put the cares aside and to just think and talk about Dad. As the "Tenors" sang "I'm going to miss him, the old man". Love you Dad--HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!!!
