Christopher passed away May 4, 2021.

Christopher was born April 11, 2003 in Lubbock, TX to Eddie Castillo and Manuela Hernandez. Christopher was the baby, and he knew he could use it to get his way. Always negotiating until you gave in. He could always make you laugh even when you tried so hard to be serious. A big pain in the butt at all our family functions. Chris was a father, a son, a brother, and a good friend. He was Adalina's, his niece and nephews best friend. He was an amazing uncle and father. A supportive brother to all kinds of crazy. Burn outs, removing a whole muffler just to make his brothers car sound "cool". He wasn't afraid to get in and learn hands on to fixing a car. Protective of everyone he loved. Fearless, well except for the carnival rides. He liked to go to the fair but never wanted to get on rides. But he was perfectly fine to hold a python at 5 yrs old. Stubborn in his ways but he loved hard. Christopher was and will forever be loved by everyone who knew him.

Loved ones include daughter Adalina Ray Castillo; father Eddie Castillo; mother Manuela Hernandez. Brother Martin Flores; sister Jasline Nichole Castillo; brother Eddie Nicholas Castillo, Jr.; and sister Natalie Love Castillo.

One niece and four nephews.

Preceded in death by his grandmother Rosemary Velasquez and grandfather Joe Angel Flores.
