She loved to dance and was an avid water/ snow skier. She loved her friends, many of whom she has known since childhood. She loved her family and was fiercely loyal to all of them. She loved her animals. She loved life.

She was preceded in death by her parents T.S. and Robin Leftwich Cranford, her brother Dusty Cranford and Cousin Dee McCurry.

Survivors include her sister, Misty Cranford Richie and her husband Jerry; nephews Travis (Chelsey) Tucker, Clay, Ty (Shelly), and Christopher (Lauren) Cranford, and niece Kelly Camille Cranford (Tyler) Gentry; uncle Bobby Day; and her great nieces and nephews Azlynn Tucker, and Ashley, Austin, Tyler and Kai Cranford. Misty Richie extends extreme gratitude to Kevin and wife Bonnie Whitaker, Travis Tucker and Jerry Richie for going above and beyond to care for Christy not only before but also after her death.

“ Christy and I were very good friends, especially in elementary school and in junior high. We loved dressing alike matching from head to toe. I LOVED catching up with her at our last reunion and reminiscing about our slumber parties and fun times together. My deepest sympathy, thoughts and prayers are extended to all of her family members!

Warmly,

“ Misty, You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Christy and I were friends growing up and especially close friends during our Sophomore year in high school. Like many high school friends, we lost touch over the years but she was always considered a friend. My heart goes out to all of your family at this very sad time. May she rest in peace!
