“ Sister Clara was a wonderful christian, a sweet friend, we had many good talks,walks, fun going to garage sales. We laughed, cried,prayed together. So many precious memories, only thing I didn't like was getting in the car with her as driver,it was a scary experience. She was always willing to help, she loved her Lord, her children, her pastor an church family. I know she's with the Lord. Miss her much

“ Sister Cara was a dear freind to my wife and me. She lived just down street from us and would come visit many times. We will miss her dearly, but are thankful she knew Jesus as her Saviour and someday we will be rejoicing with her in Heaven
