

Clayton David Tedder

April 2, 1983 - May 31, 2026

Clayton David Tedder passed away on May 31, 2026, in Kermit, Texas.

Born on April 2, 1983, in Anchorage, Alaska, Clayton moved to Lubbock with his family as a young child and spent most of his life in West Texas.

In December 2020, Clayton married Tasha Tedder. He was also father to his son Clayton Lee, He loved being a husband & father and treasured the time he spent with his family.

Clayton worked as a welder and fabricator throughout much of his career. He spent several years with Daco Corporation, where he was a reliable coworker and valued member of the team.

Outside of work, Clayton enjoyed raising goats and chickens, working on vehicles, and taking on projects that kept him busy. He also loved helping out his family & friends.

Clayton is survived by his wife, Tasha Tedder; his son, Clayton Lee Tedder; his father, Gary Tedder; his sisters, Brandy Tedder and Ginger Gilbreath; his brother-in-law, Casey Gilbreath; his niece, Marley Gilbreath; his nephew, Jordan Gilbreath; and His dog Diesel.

Clayton lived life on his own terms, grounded in his faith and unwavering in his commitment to his family. He will be remembered for the authentic, steady way he showed up for those who mattered most.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Sabina Capshaw; his grandparents, Edmund Duane Capshaw, Ann Capshaw, Robert Jean Tedder Berg, and Robert David Tedder.

A memorial service will be held on June 5, 2026, at 2:00 p.m. at New Deal Methodist Church, 301 S Monroe Ave, New Deal, TX 79350.

Clayton you were one of my biggest inspirations of all time. You were one of the biggest blessings God had ever given in my life and others. One day we will both see each other again, to talk about anything and everything.
