“ I am so grateful to Shirley Roberson who notified me of Clifford's death. She was a dear cousin and I remember our many good times. I especially treasure the last time I saw her - at my husband, J. L. Newsom's funeral. May Clifford rest in peace.

“ Aunt Cliff was so much fun to visit with. She was interested in everyone and everything, and when she visited with a person, she made them feel like they were the only one in the room. I am so thankful that we got the chance to spend some time with her last summer at Sarah's reception! She smiled easily, laughed often, and loved gloriously! Love, Heather “ "Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of His saints." A memory that I treasure happened the last time I saw Aunt Clifford. After a visit, while holding hands, we sang hymns together and praised our LORD. It was delightful. May HE flood you with peace and comfort today and give you His peace.

“ I loved Aunt Cliff for her sweet spirit and easy laugh. She was a blessing to all her family. She always encouraged and spoke of her love for her family. I imagine many others felt this love too. Kay, you were her best blessing, as were Mike & Greg.
