“ My condolences to Angela and the Cooper family. I remember Cornell from the Estacado High School band and he was such a sweet and very well dressed young man. May your family find comfort during this difficult time and may he RIP.

“ Angela Lethridge (Ann)

Of course me and Cornell had a lot of memories together, but this particular one was extra special to me.

Cornell drove all the way to Abilene Texas to pick up me , my dad and son cause our rental vehicle had broken down on our way from Houston TSU. It was about 9:00pm when I called Cornell...he did not complain or hesitate to drive 2 hours to help us.

That is the type of heart he had...when he tell you he loves you, he really meant it from his Heart. A very caring and loving heart when I needed him he was always there. Always a special place in my Heart.

“ To the family, we are so sorry for your loss. Cornell was married to my sister Angela back in the 80's. He was a kind and special person in our lives. We are going to miss his beautiful smile and soft spoken words. My fondest memory of him was 2 years ago when our mother died, he came to the funeral and gave me the biggest hug at the gravesite and said to me "I had to be here for the funeral. I loved Mrs. Lethridge". We definitely have his family in our prayers during this time of bereavement. RIP Cornell. Ed and Doris Henderson and family 🤝🙏
