

Curtis Wesley McFarling, Jr.

May 8, 1933 - March 9, 2026

Curtis Wesley McFarling, Jr., age 92, of Lubbock, Texas, passed away peacefully on March 9, 2026, due to natural causes. Born on May 8, 1933, Curtis was a devoted husband, brother, and friend who left a lasting impression on those who knew him.

After graduating high school, Curtis served his country as a Private First Class in the U.S. Army from December 1953 until September 1955. He married the love of his life, Carolyn Austin, on November 9, 1977, in Austin, Texas. Curtis dedicated his career to serving the community as a manager in the Urban Renewal Department for the City of Lubbock until his retirement.

He is survived by his beloved spouse, Carolyn McFarling; sisters-in-law , Rosie Francka Betty Roberts; brothers-in-law , Joe Austin and Eddie Austin .

Curtis found joy in spending evenings with friends and was known for his warm spirit and engaging conversations. His cremated remains will be interred at the West Texas Veterans Cemetery in Lubbock. No formal services are planned at this time; however, the family welcomes friends to remember Curtis in their own special way.

May he rest in peace.

Curtis was preceded in death by his parents, Charles Wesley McFarling, Sr. and Virginia Halfast McFarling and his older sister, Doris McFarling.

Cemetery Details

Miller Crematory

202 Avenue Q
Lubbock, TX 79415