“ I well remember all the good memories that I had with my grandpa. And I remember when I had my daughter savannah and my son Leland my grandpa cried both times when I told him he was going to be a great grandpa again he was happy and excited that he cried I'll always remember those days. I'm also going to remember all the memories of him and grandma raising me. I love you grandpa and I miss you already but I'll see you again someday.
