

David Evans Jacka

June 29, 1959 - July 1, 2017

David Evans Jacka, of Lubbock, Texas, died peacefully on Saturday, July 1, 2017 in the palliative care unit at Covenant Medical Center.

He was born on June 29, 1959 to Alonzo Jacka and Marilyn Jacka in Houston, Texas.

David married Evelyn Marie Ainsworth on December 17, 1999 in Clovis, New Mexico. He was a devoted husband, and the marriage was very happy.

An accomplished musician and songwriter, he played several instruments. He was an expert on contemporary music, of which he possessed an encyclopedic knowledge. He loved animals, and was always ready to rescue an animal in need.

David is survived by his wife of eighteen years, Evelyn Marie Ainsworth of Lubbock; his step-daughter, Angela Ainsworth Forrest of Houston; his brother, Paul Evans Jacka of Lubbock; his sister, Nancy Evans Jacka; and his sister-in-law, Exa Kaye Ainsworth Luman of Midland.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Jon Evans Jacka. Graveside services will be held at 11:00 a.m. CST, or 10:00 a.m. MST, on Friday, July 7, 2017 at Lovington Cemetery, Gum Avenue, Lovington, New Mexico, with Alonzo Quinones officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to Amnesty International.

Previous Events

Graveside Service

JUL 7. 10:00 AM - 11:30 AM (MT)

Lovington Cemetery
Lovington, NM