“ I was fortunate enough to work @ Compu-Share for nearly 25 years and I worked with Dave. What a true Christian man. I will never forget him. I was sorry that I couldn't attend the funeral. I was sitting with my wife with an 101 year lady that had broken her hip and is in her last days. Dawn, I have you in my prayers. Sincerely, Lee Towns.

“ *Dawn, family and friends, you are all in our continued prayers and on our hearts.
You just have to read a few of these comments to see how loved and cherished Dave was. May you find some bit of comfort in that.
Lifting you up.*

“ my dear sweet Dawn there no words to express the sorrow felt in the passing of David, But my heart is filled with joy in knowing that now he is sitting a the feet of our Savior., and singing with the heavenly hosts. I have known few men who loved and lived God's grace and joy as David did. David also had great love for his family. Dawn I remember sharing with him his pride and joy in you as you have grown in your faith an your ability to share that with others. his joy and pride in you and the boys was always very central to his life. Tom and myself have been blessed by your friendship. All of our love.

“ *David always encouraged me throughout my life. I loved my cousin and will always love him. Even the last few months of his life he enjoyed talking about our family heritage. He copied some old family letters that I have and found joy in discussing them. It will be such a joy to see David again, surrounded by all those ancestors, our Christian friends and family, sitting around Jesus's feet. We will have a great family reunion!!
Love you David, will see you soon!! Missy*

“ *I will always remember three traits that David enjoyed and shared with others. His joy of singing, his love of reading, and his strong religious faith. David's love of these will stay with me forever!

“ I was almost 16 years old when David joined a family I'd known all my life. Memories of him have since been intermingled with memories of Dawn's family since that time--memories that have endured over the years. I thank God for placing the many people in their path who are surrounding them now and in the days to come.
