

Deborah Jane McDaniel

January 27, 1966 - January 24, 2018

Deborah Jane (Norris) McDaniel was born on January 27, 1966, in her beloved England within sight of Windsor Castle. She grew up in England where she was involved in acting and dance.

Debbie met her future husband, Andrew, as a chance meeting while purchasing theater tickets in London. They married in the British Virgin Islands and then settled in the United States where they made their home in several states before moving to Lubbock.

During her time in her adopted home of Lubbock, Debbie had worked at Above and Beyond Pet Care, Samuel's Jewelers, Banana Republic, and Talbot's where she was a client specialist until the time she could no longer work.

Debbie departed this world into the arms of her Lord on January 24, 2018, at the age of 51.

Debbie is survived by her husband, Andrew of Lubbock, her mother Delphine Norris of Herne Bay, England, her brothers Paul of Norwich, England and Kevin of Canterbury, England, and her sister, Cheryl Guerrero of Palamos Gerona, Spain. Debbie is also survived by her much loved four-legged babies, Charley, Winston, Sabrina, and Ozzy.

From Mum :-

I would like to thank the lovely people of Lubbock, especially Jan and Michael, who looked after and cared for our beautiful Debbie. I know anyone who knew her would agree, a sweeter girl never existed. I am very proud and blessed to be her Mum and have had her in my life. Debbie, with her lovely smile, will be sadly missed and this world will be a poorer place without her. We must go on without her, but it will be very hard as we love her so much. Thank you again for all your loving kindness towards her.

“ I met Debbie during auditions for "Enchanted April" in Salisbury, NC, April 2006. We became instant friends. Lovely, talented, sweet and absolutely enchanting, we were all saddened when she moved so far away.

Our world is missing a bright light with her passing and all who were touched by her have been forever blessed with warm, lovely, laughing memories.

“ I have been friends with Debbie and her mum for over 40 years meeting first when my girls Sarah and Nicola joined the same dancing school. Debbie was the star of the school with her fabulous talent, personality, charm and sincerity which she gave to everything. It was thrilling to see her on the London stage in Annie and equally so for her many television performances. She made everyone so proud.

Debbie was the most beautiful person inside and out, so generous in every sense of the word and despite the miles apart continued to be the most wonderful daughter and support to her mum and a great friend to me. It's no surprise to us that she made so many lovely friends in the USA.

Although we cannot be there today Debbie will be forever in our hearts and we will be thinking of you all on this deeply sad day.

Goodbye darling Debs.

*With all our love
June*

“ Becky Lippard (see below) has said it better than I can: Debbie, the most pure, the most beautiful soul, inside and out. She and I became fast, true friends on stage in ENCHANTED APRIL, a friendship that carried over into real life. No matter the miles that separated us, the bond held, and since then, every time I step on stage, just before the curtain rises, I look up and say, "Rose, be with me." I often told Debbie that she should write a book--she was my favorite storyteller. Her mum Delphine and her dog Charley were the great loves of her life.

I'd like to thank her Texas family (Jan, Michael, Joyce, Starla, her co-workers, and, I'm sure, many others) for being her champion angels. Today is Debbie's 52nd birthday. She and I are the same age, and for every year I am fortunate enough to continue to live, my Rose will live with me in my mind and in my heart.

“ I first came to know Debbie in the play "Enchanted April" in Salisbury, NC, but she has been with me ever since. She never let a birthday or a holiday or our friendaversary go by without a card or some kind of remembrance. I hear her voice and see her smile in all things beautiful. She was so creative and witty and a pure delight. She took joy in the smallest things and gave it back in abundance. My heart is very heavy for you, Delphine, but you must be SO very proud of having shared with all of us someone so special. Thank you to all of the wonderful friends who surrounded Debbie with love in Lubbock. I am so grateful for each of you. As for those of us in Salisbury, she was and will always be "Our Rose".
