

Dee Ann Nickens

December 16, 1955 - September 3, 2024

In loving memory of Dee Ann Nickens, a soul who graced this world with her melodious voice and served as the Choir Director at Ovilla United Methodist Church. Born in Dallas, TX on December 16, 1955, she carried a deep passion for music and shared her harmonious gift with all who had the privilege of listening.

On September 3, 2024, the world lost a dedicated wife, mother, and a cherished member of her community. Curtis Nickens, her devoted spouse, daughters Audra, Katie, and Ashley, along with siblings Robbie, Donna, and Margie, are left to cherish her memory as well as her beloved six grandchildren.

Dee Ann found solace in the tranquility of her home in Ovilla, TX, where she tended to her garden, cared for chickens, and emboldened the very earth beneath her feet. Her love for Cross Stitching and the enchanting worlds of Science Fiction and Fantasy provided her solace in quiet moments.

Though she has departed from this realm, her lyrical legacy and unwavering spirit endure. The depths of her voice shall linger like an everlasting melody in the hearts of those she touched. A memorial service to honor her life will be held on Saturday, September 7, 2024, at 2:00 pm at Sanders Memorial Chapel.

May her essence resonate in the winds, and may the memories of her presence illuminate the paths we tread. Dee Ann Nickens, a singer, a caretaker, a devoted soul, forever etched in the annals of time.

Dee was preceded in death by: Daniel Powell, James Powell, Nell Burnett

“ Yeah, was my beautiful sister. I knew her since I was in the third grade. Or remembered her? She was the best sister ever. I was able to witness her in high school. As I was in third grade, she played in a couple of plays that were absolutely outstanding and she just flourished and I've always been proud to call her my sister. She played.

Piano and sang so beautiful...she was taken too soon...Our Hearts were not ready. Deeann was ready maby...
