

Dianne Goble

January 23, 1941 - March 28, 2026

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Dianne Goble, a beloved mother, grandmother, and friend, who left this world peacefully on March 28, 2026. Dianne was born in Amarillo, Texas, on January 23, 1941, and spent her formative years in Crosbyton and Seminole, Texas. She graduated from Seminole High School in 1959 and went on to marry the love of her life, William Robert Goble, in Alamagordo, New Mexico, on December 20 of that same year.

Dianne was a devoted homemaker, pouring her heart into creating a warm and loving home for her family. Her passion for nurturing blossomed in her garden, and she found joy in cooking delightful meals, especially after church on Sundays, when she would gather her family around the table. Dianne valued her time spent with family, laughing and sharing stories, and was known for her great sense of humor.

As a long-time member of the 12th Street Church of Christ in Shallowater, she cherished her church friends and the moments spent studying the Bible alongside them. Dianne had diverse interests, from birdwatching and gardening to her surprisingly competitive side when playing video games.

She is survived by her four daughters, Lisa Arroyo, Robin Wilmot, Paula Hanna, and Svetlana Crouch, who carry forward her spirit of love and laughter. Dianne leaves behind a legacy of eight grandchildren-Greg Wilmot, Edward Wilmot, Michael Arroyo, John Anchondo, Evangeline Crouch, Victoria Crouch, and Paulina Crouch-as well as three cherished great-grandchildren, Eilidh Wilmot, Harris Wilmot, and Alexander Anchondo.

In honor of Dianne's life, a Visitation will be held at Sanders Funeral Home on Wednesday, April 1, 2026, from 5:00 PM to 6:30 PM, allowing friends and family to come together in remembrance. Funeral Service will take place at the 12th Street Church of Christ in Shallowater on Thursday, April 2, 2026, at 10:00 AM, celebrating the love and joy she shared throughout her life. Dianne will be laid to rest in a Graveside Service at the City of Lubbock Cemetery on Monday, April 6, 2026, at 10:00 AM.

Dianne Goble will be remembered for her warmth, kindness, and the light she brought into the lives of those fortunate enough to have known her. May she rest in peace.

Dianne was preceded in death by her husband, William Goble, her father Louis Johnston and mother Isabel Johnston, and her brother, David Johnston.
