“ Dixie was not only my cousin but my wonderful friend. She will be greatly missed by all. She and Don were so gracious to everyone and always showed their love to each other and to the rest of the family as well. I know the family is grieving right now and we that loved them both grieve along with them. She was so proud of her home and family and we all felt at home there when visiting. I love you Dixie and I picture you visiting with your mother and dad and all the rest of the family you showed so much love for. I believe I can reach out and talk to you as I do my own Mother. God Bless you my love.
