

Dolores Dale Taylor

July 31, 1928 - July 24, 2025

It is with deep love and heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beloved mother, Dolores Dale Taylor of Lubbock, Texas.

Dolores was born on July 31, 1928, in Lubbock County, Texas, to Earl and Edna (Hopkins) Wages. On June 8, 1948, Dolores married her high school sweetheart, Jack Taylor, celebrating over 50 years of marriage. Together they built a life centered on Christian faith and raising children.

Dolores spent countless hours as a Sunday school teacher at the Missionary Baptist Church in Farwell, Texas. She enjoyed sewing, tending her vegetable garden, shopping local antique stores, and making brownies for her grandchildren. Dolores had a servant's heart and cared for countless family members throughout her life. She was a wonderful wife, a devoted mother, and a loving grandmother and great-grandmother. Jack and Dolores were blessed with five children, Becky (Wallace) Inge, Jeniene (Terry) King, Kristy (Kerry) Weinheimer, Greg (Sheryl) Taylor, and Melissa (Mike) Jones. She found immense joy being "MeMe" to her eleven grandchildren and twenty-two great-grandchildren.

A private family service will be held in August in Lubbock, Texas. Dolores is preceded in death by her husband, Jack Taylor, her parents, Earl and Edna Wages, and two sisters, Doris Stevens and Kathy Sisco.

“ Dolores was one of the strongest and best people I know. She came into our life after Ronnie and I got married. Terry and Jeniene were our best friends turned into brother and sister. Dolores opened her home and heart to us too. She was a strong prayer warrior and I know she prayed many prayers for us. Her home was like a museum filled with little knickknacks from the past. She honored the past, present and future. She was a strong mother who raised four beautiful daughters and a son and instilled values of faith, family and friendship. She stayed up to date and relevant with her grandchildren which was easy to see when they would run by to see her. She was proud of every new great grandchild. Dolores and Jack leave a wonderful heritage to their family of strength , faith and love. Her legacy lies in her family who carries the values she lived out daily. We loved Dolores but celebrate that she is in heaven now... totally healed and happy for eternity. Ronnie & Kathy Skinner
