“ Don was one of the sweetest men I have ever known. He used to help me so much when I lived in Lubbock and would do anything anyone needed. Dixie and the flower shop were his most favorite. Especially Dixie, she was his love for a lot of years and I always remember them holding hands and showed their love in so many ways to each other and to others. My Dad died a long time ago but I remember so well he and Don and Calvin going to all the ballgames. They all loved sports. Thank you God for Don.

“ My dear Don, You will be missed greatly by all those who knew you. I am blessed to have been able to call you family. I have so many wonderful memories of time spent with you and Dixie and all the family. I can imagine you and Papa now rejoicing in Heaven and talking about all the sports the two of you enjoyed so much together. I know you are watching over us and we look forward to the time we will meet again.

The world and community has lost another outstanding, and fine gentleman. I did not know Don well, but the times I was in contact with him.I knew he was an excellent gardener and florist. Many years ago when I owned and operated a small flower shop in Olton, I came to Lubbock desperate for pot plants, Don Hogan helped me, when no one else would. Later, when I moved to Lubbock and worked for a funeral home I came to appreciate Don Hogan and his work. The last time I saw him was at St.Luke's with Penny He came to see his granddaughter.
